

(2) Assessing the seriousness of security violations and imposing appropriate penalties for the persons under his administrative control;

(3) Informing departmental administrative authorities of the facts concerning security violations by personnel under their administrative control;

(4) Notifying the Director of Security of action taken in connection with security violations.

c. Chiefs of national and departmental components are responsible for:

(1) Insuring that all personnel under their jurisdiction are apprised of security regulations affecting them;

(2) Establishing additional security routines within their assigned area to meet their particular requirements;

(3) Providing for a periodic review of security regulations by personnel under their jurisdiction.

d. The Chief, Security Branch, NPIC, is responsible for:

(1) Providing staff support to the Director, NPIC, and to the chiefs of national and departmental components in the Center in developing and maintaining adequate security standards;

(2) Conducting daily inspections of vaulted and non-vaulted areas to insure compliance with security regulations;

(3) Reporting security violations or alleged breaches of security to the Director, NPIC, and to the chief of the national or departmental component concerned;

(4) Assisting in the investigation of security violations occurring on NPIC premises.

e. Individual Responsibility

All civilian and military personnel assigned to national and departmental components located on NPIC premises are responsible for knowledge and conscientious observance of pertinent security regulations. Each such person is charged with the responsibility of reporting promptly any breach of security coming to his attention, to his official superior; to the Chief, Security Branch, NPIC; or to the Director, NPIC.

SECRET

Approved For Release 2006/09/26 : CIA-RDP87B00832R000100020002-6

NATIONAL PHOTOGRAPHIC INTERPRETATION CENTER

NPIC REGULATION
NO. 10-1

SECURITY
8 June 1965

COMPLIANCE WITH SECURITY REGULATIONS

RESCISSION: NPIC Regulation No. 10-1, dated 30 March 1962

1. General

25X1 Personnel within [] must observe strict standards to protect the highly-sensitive national security information located therein. These standards, developed to be compatible with operating procedures, must be 25X1 complied with fully. This requirement applies to all personnel, whether civilian or military, assigned to national and departmental components located in [] Penalties for noncompliance with or violation of security regulations will be imposed by the national or departmental component having administrative responsibility for the person concerned in accordance with its regulations.

2. Responsibilities

a. The Director of Security, CIA, is responsible for furnishing staff support in;

(1) Notifying the Director, NPIC, on any matter affecting the security of the Center;

(2) Investigating noncompliance with or violation of security regulations;

(3) Submitting reports with recommendations to the Director, NPIC, concerning noncompliance with or violation of security regulations.

b. The Director, NPIC, is responsible for:

(1) Establishing NPIC regulations, standards and practices to protect national security information and advising national and departmental components thereof;

GROUP 1
Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification

Approved For Release 2006/09/26 : CIA-RDP87B00832R000100020002-6